SIAMS 2017

Ash Wednesday— We were very proud of our Year 6 last week as they joined in the act of worship. Bishop Philip led the service and told us how Jesus was tempted by Satan whilst he was in the desert - but said 'NO' as Jesus always chose to do things for other people rather than for himself. He asked us to carry that message out of school to try and continue during the period of Lent - try do things for others - rather than for ourselves.

World Book day— We had fun reading around the campfire and meeting the lovely Author Charlotte Simpson—Williams. If you would like to buy Charlotte’s book please use the link on school money. Thank you FOMBS for ending the day with a super sale of Wonka bars. If you won a Golden Ticket please let us know as some prizes are still waiting at the Office. There are also some spare bars to buy too. FOMBS next fundraiser can be found on the next pages, Brunch with the Bunny.

This Friday will be the interviews for your new Head teacher, the candidates will lead an act of Worship in our hall for children and staff , they will then meet our Year 6 Ethos Shine team , who I am sure will ask some probing questions. They will then continue to be interviewed in the afternoon by our Governors and Advisors.

Friday 21st March Red Nose Day- £1 non uniform , children can tell jokes in Worship that morning to make us all laugh.

Our Year 6 have been invited to the Easter journey at Burscough Methodists on Tuesday 25th March staff will take and return for lunch.
