SIAMS 2017

Thanks to those who came to join in our PSHE session No Outsiders today. We will be holding another next term, we will also have Muddy Forest Church on Friday 4th April, all welcome.

Next week it is World Book day, we are having ours on Friday due to swimming. The children can bring their favourite books, they can dress up if they want but please don't go to any expense. They will need to get changed for Forest School and will be having a hot chocolate by the camp fire sharing our books. We also have a local author visiting that day.

Two huge thank 'yous' this week one for Toby's Dad who asked for the yellow lines outside school to be re-painted over half term and one to Mere Brow Smithy who have sponsored a beautiful cherry blossom tree to be planted in our developing forest school area. Please get in touch if you would like to sponsor a tree.

FOMBS have two fundraisers planned this half term. One is the WONKA bar and the other is breakfast with the Easter Bunny, see Facebook and next page for details.

I have been asked to remind that from Y3 up school fruit is not provided. The children can bring their own fruit in or a healthy snack., thank you.

Secondary School offers are out this coming Monday, we hope all our Year 6 get their first choices, fingers crossed for you all.

Tarleton Corinthians are after a year 4/5 Goalkeeper for their girls team contact 07894 858114 for more information.

After Easter we will be starting a new menu, LCC are still looking for a replacement for Miss Allen, Pancakes available next Tuesday. See https://fa-esms-saasfaukgovprod1.fa.ocs.oraclecloud.com/hcmUI/CandidateExperience/en/sites/CX_1/jobs?keyword=catering&mode=location for jobs. School lunches will be increasing to £2.80 for those that pay.

LOVE

1 Cor. 13:4-8a
Love is patient, love is kind.
It does not boast, it is not proud.
It is not rude, it is not self-seeking,
it is not easily angered.
It keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices with the truth.
It always protects,
always trusts,
always hopes,
always perseveres.
LOVE NEVER FAILS.

Have a lovely weekend all ! Mrs Livesey.
