SIAMS 2017

Welcome back everyone and Happy New Year. We have lots to look forward to in 2025. We officially welcome Mrs Helliwell to Y2/3/4 and we have heard that Miss Smith is having fun in deep snow! This week the Lancashire History team have been in to teach Hedgehogs about the Great Fire of London and next week they are coming for the rest of the School to launch our Ancient Egyptians topic. Today we have had our Swimming Gala , the team came joint second and came back with lots of medals, the teachers said they are very proud of them all! Swimming lessons for years 3 /4/5 start after half term on Thursday 27th February in the afternoon. This week Squirrels, Badgers and Foxes have also started learning to play bowls in our extra PE bolt-on with West Lancs. Sports.

A reminder that we have our clothing bank on the car park and Blood Cancer charities and school both receive money for these collections. Thank you also to all those who have brought in chocolate plastic containers they will help the Macmillan Charity.

LOVE

1 Cor. 13:4-8a
 Love is patient, love is kind.
 It does not boast, it is not proud.
 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking,
 it is not easily angered,
 It keeps no record of wrongs.
 Love does not delight in evil
 but rejoices with the truth.
 It always protects,
 always trusts,
 always hopes,
 always perseveres.
 LOVE NEVER FAILS.
