Mrs Oakes has tickets in the Office for the Hedgehog Nativity , please call in to collect yours.

Thanks to all who have booked Breakfast with Santa at the Village Hall and thank you to the FOMBS committee and Head pupil families for all their hard work organising this event and others across this busy time, you are all amazing!

This week we lit the First Candle on our Advent wreath and zoomed with thousands of children in Blackburn Diocese to start the Year of Prayer. Father Mark also told us all about the Prophets who foretold that Jesus would come, as we became Bible Detectives.

Our clothing banks continues to do well we have collected 339KG so far !We also recycle batteries and printer cartridges. Sadly we are no longer a station for pen recycling as we have been told to signpost to Ryman Stationary instead in local high streets.

Have a wonderful weekend , best wishes Mrs Livesey.
