SIAMS 2017

Well done to our football team for the first leg of the TASA competition , we are 4th in medium and small schools. They played brilliantly and had lots of fun! Thank you Miss Rowe and Miss Smith for accompanying the children.

Miss Allen is changing our menu slightly going forward and will do the children's favourite curry every Thursday as one of the choices.

This week in Worship we have been looking at how photographs can change the world and how we feel. I asked the children to put on their Seesaw a wow moment. This one is from Jessica this week in y4 a lovely sunset she wanted to share.

On Friday 4th October we will be holding our First Muddy Church of the year. We will start outside after registration and have lots of lovely activities and worship linked to Creation and St Francis. You are all welcome to join us 9a.m. until 11 a.m.

After school on the 4th Joel's Mum will be selling cakes again in aid of the Macmillan Charity , please support the charity if you are able. You will also have noticed we have a clothing collection bin in the carpark 'Donate clothes 4 Sammy ',is launched by Leukaemia & Myeloma Research UK..A charity dedicated to finding cures for three major types of blood cancer. Curtains , towels, sheets, blankets and paired shoes can also be donated, in bags.

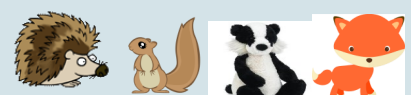

Have a lovely weekend, Mrs Livesey.
