Dear Parents, Carers, Children, Staff and Governors,

As we come to the end of our time at Mere Brow CE, we wanted to express our deepest and most heartfelt thanks for the overwhelming kindness we have received. The beautiful cards, thoughtful gifts, spoken words, and heartfelt hugs have truly touched us both.

Between us, we have spent 37 wonderful years at this school — years filled with laughter, learning, challenges, and growth. Saying goodbye is never easy, but we do so with full hearts and the joy of so many precious memories.

One particular comment we received sums up what we have always hoped to achieve in our time here:

“To teach a child to count is important, but to teach a child what really counts is even more so.”

We have always believed in the importance of nurturing not just minds, but hearts too. The Christian values we live out each day in school have never shone more brightly than they have in these past few weeks. We have seen them glowing especially in our wonderful Year Sixes, and we couldn't be prouder of them all.

Though we are moving on to new chapters, the golden thread that ties us to this school will never break. We leave with confidence and excitement, knowing the school will continue to thrive and shine under the leadership of the new Head Miss Rowe. There is so much to look forward to.

Thank you for making our final days so memorable. We will carry your kindness and the spirit of this special place with us always.

With love and gratitude,

Sandra Livesey and Ann Nightingale.
